Case Number: 18-3394

On 08-15-18, at approximately 0015 hours, a lone masked gunman approached a couple while they were seated in their parked vehicle. The gunman demanded their vehicle and cell phone. The suspect struck the male victim on the head with the weapon. The victims complied and the suspect fled the area with the stolen auto. Pleasant Hill Police officers responded to the scene immediately. Within minutes, the stolen auto was tracked moving through streets in Bay Point. Pleasant Hill Police officers and deputies from the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Office responded to the area and coordinated a search for the stolen vehicle. The vehicle was located in the area of Chadwick Circle in Bay Point. The sole occupant was arrested and later booked into the Contra Costa County jail in Martinez for carjacking and other related charges. A replica firearm was recovered inside the stolen auto. The stolen auto and other stolen property were returned to the male victim. As a result of being struck, the male victim had a complaint of pain but he declined medical attention at the scene.
